

CONVOCATION CEREMONY

MARCH 26, 2026

TODAY'S CEREMONY

The ceremony will begin promptly at 2:00 p.m. and is expected to last approximately two hours. We kindly ask that you stay in your seat for the duration of the ceremony and keep noise to a minimum, except when cheering for the graduates.

Each graduate will be called up on stage to be recognized and have a picture taken with Dr. Julia Christensen Hughes, President & Vice Chancellor of Yorkville University. Graduates are then expected to return to their seats.

Following the ceremony, there will be a light reception, where you will have the opportunity to socialize with your fellow graduates, faculty, family members and friends.

Professional photos taken during the ceremony will be shared with you at a later date via email. The platform party will also be available for photos with family following the ceremony.

Please remember to celebrate this special day with us on social media by tagging @yorkvilleu.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic regalia is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, derived from the monasteries and wearing of clerical robes, and continued in a new way as universities were founded. The degree hood was originally part of the monk's habit and eventually, the hood became separate from the gown, variegated in colour, and emblematic of fields of study, degrees, and universities.

For the mortarboard, the tassel is worn to the left until graduation and is moved to the right during the ceremony. For photographs, the tassel should be worn on the right. Graduates are to wear the appropriate gown and hood for their degree or diploma.

DISTINGUISHED CONVOCATION SPEAKER

ERIN MARTYN

Erin Martyn, Adjunct Professor of Interior Design at Yorkville University, has over a decade of experience in design education. Through both teaching and curriculum development, Erin strives to create collaborative and inclusive learning communities, as well as prepare students for professional success. Her research interests include social justice in the built environment and online studio culture.

Erin has worked as design project manager for an Atlanta-based interior design firm and developed brand prototypes for Intercontinental Hotels Group. Her designs have been featured in multiple industry publications. In 2025, Erin completed a graduate certificate in Leadership in Social Justice from Yorkville's Master of Education program. She was an Academic Honors Fellow when earning her M.F.A in Interior Design from the Savannah College of Art and Design (2010). Erin received her B.A. in Literature and Studio Art from the University of Virginia in 2005, and was awarded their Aunspaugh Fellowship. She currently resides in Arizona with her husband and three children.

STUDENT CONVOCATION SPEAKER

MAIGEN ANN O'BRIEN

At 49, Maigen represents resilience, reinvention, and the courage to begin again. An older student who saw opportunity amid the pandemic, she returned to school in 2021 and later enrolled at Yorkville University in 2023. She made the bold decision to rewrite her story at a stage of life when many feel their paths are already set.

Her journey has been anything but linear. She has been a seamstress, a business owner, a wife, a mother, an artist, an athlete, plus many more roles, each one shaping her creativity, work ethic, and deep understanding of community. Throughout her life, she has chosen to reboot her path multiple times, proving that growth is not bound by age but driven by intention and innovation in one's path.

Returning to higher education was not simply an academic decision; it was a declaration that learning, ambition, and personal evolution are lifelong pursuits. Maigen stands as an example that it is never too late to invest in yourself, to pivot with purpose, and to build something new from experience rather than in spite of it.

Her story is one of perseverance, courage, and the power of starting again.

ABOUT YORKVILLE UNIVERSITY

Yorkville University began with a bold vision: to offer flexible, rigorous, and career-focused programs that transform lives.

Since 2004, Yorkville University has expanded to campuses across Canada, offering both online and on-campus programs.

Our graduates have advanced their careers through programs in the behavioural sciences, social sciences, business, design and the creative arts. Yorkville University's student-centred, practitioner-oriented approach equips graduates with skills that employers value, making us one of Canada's largest private universities.

*Congratulations
Graduates*
