6.1.6. English Language Proficiency – Amended July 6, 2026

On July 6, 2026, Academic Council of Yorkville University approved to amend the TOEFL scale and associated score requirements in the University's English Language Proficiency Requirements, reflecting the implementation of the revised TOEFL scoring system

The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any student whose proficiency in English is insufficient.

Applicants for admission must establish proficiency in English sufficient for post-secondary study. Such proficiency may be established in one of the following ways:

1. Completion of secondary education where English is the language of instruction.¹
2. Successful completion of at least 12 credit hours of previous postsecondary education where English is the language of instruction.¹
3. Successful completion with the equivalent of "B" standing of a post-secondary level English for Academic Purposes program accredited by Languages Canada (Languages Canada).
4. Confirmation of an acceptable score² on a test of English language proficiency recognized by Yorkville University.³

English Language Proficiency Tests: Minimum Scores Required for Undergraduate Program Admission

Undergraduate Programs – Conditional Admission Requirements

Applicants to undergraduate programs who meet other admission requirements but have an IELTS score below 6.5 but no lower than 6.0 and have a minimum of 6.0 on all IELTS bands (or equivalent on another recognized English language proficiency test), may be admitted conditionally. Conditionally admitted students must meet the following requirements before being fully admitted to their program of study:

1. Students can only take three courses in their first term and ENGL101 must be one of those courses.
2. Students must achieve a minimum of a C+ (67%; 2.3 GPA) in ENGL101 as proof of their capability for University study in the English language.

Students who meet the above conditions after their first term of study are fully admitted into the program. Students who fail to achieve a C+ in ENGL101 are required to re-take the course at their own cost. A student has a maximum of two attempts to complete the ENGL101 requirement successfully.

For conditionally admitted students, the first term of study is prescribed by the University.

10.1. Bachelor of Business Administration – Amended May 15, 2026

On May 15, 2026, The New Brunswick Provincial Senate approved a motion to amend the Academic Calendar to align the standard course load for online and on-campus courses and to include consistent language regarding the cumulative GPA requirement for taking a fifth course.

New calendar entry:

10.1.2.12. Student Course Load

The recommended and standard course load for full-time students in good academic standing in the BC BBA program is four courses (12 credits) per term. This represents a 100% course load. Students may elect to reduce their course load and take three courses (9 credits) per term while still meeting the requirements for full-time status for financial aid purposes. Students in good academic standing with a strong cumulative GPA, typically 3.5 or above, may apply to the Program Head or designate, through the Registrar, for permission to take one additional course (3 credits), for a total maximum of five courses (15 credits) concurrently.
